Applicant arguments filed on 1/29/04 are considered persuasive, especially pages 12-14,17-18 which detail an installable authoring/reading component for creating and reading electronic mail messages, the authoring/reading component having at least two modes of authoring, a first authoring/reading component creating an electronic mail message on a first mode and a second authoring/reading component creating an electronic mail message on a second mode, wherein each mode causes the electronic mail message to be displayed in a different manner.

This function is supported by the specification at pages 21-42.

Claims 2-7,9-13,15-18 20-21,23-27 depend on claims 1,8,14, 19 and 22 and are considered allowable on the same basis as the independent claims as well as for further limitations set forth.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
